Transform Europe Network's Harvest for the Hungry appeal helps our Christian partners in Eastern Europe and the Balkans share God's love with poor or disadvantaged people in their communities.

Through Harvest for the Hungry, TEN provides grants to our partners so they can purchase food and reach those who need it most. Harvest for the Hungry helps our partners show practical kindness and take opportunities to share the Good News of Jesus.

Last autumn, grants from Harvest for the Hungry enabled partners to give out at least 1,094 food parcels for nearly 2,000 children and adults. A soup kitchen in Bulgaria provided 1,200 hot meals for Roma people and a project in Serbia supplied 200 food packages and multiple hot meals for 50 homeless adults.

Here's what some of our partners said...

Gjergji in Albania:

Aria* has a challenge with her health and is raising two children almost alone, one of whom has special needs. The day she received the food package her face was radiant, and she did not stop thanking for the food. "How much, how much, how much," she said with joy.

This name has been changed.*

Ancuta in Romania:

An elderly lady, with a sweet, tender spirit received food supplies; she used all the ingredients to start baking bread and cakes for the children. By providing her with these ingredients it gave her a purpose and feeling of belonging.

Nikola in Bulgaria:

This help and our visit from the church gave the woman [we helped] courage and strength to move forward... Such help is the gospel in action! We may talk a lot about God, but with such initiatives, the people in the Roma village see the real Jesus Christ!

Dragoslava in Serbia:

I am really happy when I receive a food package. It means so much to me, and I feel more at peace knowing I don't have to worry all the time.

Dragan in North Macedonia:

Harvest for the Hungry opened a lot of doors for sharing the Good News with the families where we brought food parcels... This is a great project, and we are so thankful for this grant and your prayers.
